

December 16th 2011

Forensic medicine and ballistic report:

We have found the body of Sir Villaroy, a local real estate promoter. According to the criminal entomology report, he was killed on December 14th, probably in the evening.

He died from a haemorrhage caused by a bullet which was found in his head. The ballistics showed that the bullet came from the weapon found in his right hand, but that there was no evidence of gunpowder on his hand.

December 16th 2011

Forensic medicine and ballistic report:

We have found the body of Sir Villaroy, a local real estate promoter. According to the criminal entomology report, he was killed on December 14th, probably in the evening.

He died from a haemorrhage caused by a bullet which was found in his head. The ballistics showed that the bullet came from the weapon found in his right hand, but that there was no evidence of gunpowder on his hand.